NOTE:

- These marking guidelines are intended as a guide for markers.
- It is by no means prescriptive or exhaustive.
- Candidates' responses should be considered on merit.
- Responses should be assessed holistically and points awarded where applicable in terms of decisions taken at the standardisation meeting.
- The marking guidelines will be discussed before the commencement of marking.

INSTRUCTIONS TO MARKERSMarking the comprehension:

- Because the focus is on understanding, incorrect signing and language errors in responses should not be penalised unless such errors change the meaning/ understanding. (Errors must still be noted on the grid.)
- For open-ended questions, no marks should be awarded for YES/NO or I AGREE/I DISAGREE. The reason/substantiation/motivation is what should be considered.
- No marks should be awarded for TRUE/FALSE or FACT/OPINION. The reason/substantiation/motivation is what should be considered.
- When two/three facts/points are required and a range is given, mark only the first two/three.
- Accept dialectal variations.
- For multiple-choice questions, accept BOTH the letter corresponding with the correct answer AND the answer signed in full.

QUOTATION		OWN WORDS/POINTS	Maximum Mark			Candidate Mark
1	Lesotho is a very small, poor country. One third of the population goes short of food. It has one of the highest rates of HIV/AIDS in the world and most people may only live up to the age of 41 years.	The people in Lesotho are very poor, some of them go hungry, and many of them have HIV and die by the age of 41. ✓	1		7
2	Lesotho's neighbour is South Africa which has helped the economy in Lesotho. Woollen blankets are exported from SA.	The country next to Lesotho is South Africa and they help the economy by exporting woollen blankets. ✓	1
3	After travelling around Australia and Argentina Harry says it was the time he spent in Lesotho that affected him most deeply. In Lesotho he feels closest to his mother, the late Princess Diana who devoted much of her charity work to disadvantaged children in Africa.	Lesotho had a very big impact on Harry because his mother, Princes Diana also did charity work in Africa. He feels near to her there. ✓	1
4	Prince Harry was moved by the plight of children orphaned by AIDS which has devastated the country.	Harry felt compassion for the children whose parents died from AIDS, so he decided to do something about it. ✓	1
5	In 2016 Prince Harry underwent a public HIV test at St Thomas' Hospital to raise awareness and promote how easy it is to get tested, as part of his on-going efforts to remove stigmas associated with HIV/AIDS.	Prince Harry wanted to be an example of how easy it is to get tested by getting an HIV test in St Thomas' Hospital. ✓	1

	Next we see that the forest isn't so green and healthy anymore. Some of the trees have been cut down and one of the trees is very angry. The one man is lighting the cigarette, causing air pollution. The sun becomes angry and has an orange rim which signifies that it has become hotter because of the trees that have been cut down. ✓	1
	Lastly we see that all the trees have been cut down. There is no more green anywhere. The man is so shocked by his surroundings that the cigarette falls from his mouth. The sun is now grinning in a vindictive way and it's colour changed to orange. This signifies that the sun is scorching because of all the trees that have been cut down. ✓	1
